MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

MEMBERS of the Saengerbund chorus will be the soloists at the home talent concert of that popular organization at the clubhouse tonight. The program includes the following numbers: Vocal quartets—(a) "Es haben zivel Blumlein gebuehet" (Schraeder); (b) "Mein Schatzel" (Voigt); Messrs. H. Minister, R. Brauner, A. Lepper, J. Redeker. Bass solos—(a) "It Was Not Thus to Be" (Nessler); (b) "Within Thy Sacred Bower" (Mozart); Mr. L. E. Murray. Zither duet—(A) "Erinnerung an Heiligendorf." Fantasia (Steffen); (b) "Heldes Mitten Gottes im Walde." Fantasia (Bleckinger); Messrs. A. Braunes and F. Wolf. Tenor solos—(a) "I Know a Lovely Garden" (D'Hardelet); (b) "Das Kraut Vergessenheit" (V. Fielitz); Carl Xanten. Bass solo—"The Horn" (Flogier); J. Redeker. Tenor solo—"Once" (Harvey); E. Jasper; Mrs. Frank Byram, accompanist. Violin solo—"Cavatina" (Raff); J. H. Glick. Bass solo—"If I Had the World to Give to You" (Douglass); Thomas Murray.

The second musicale of the Saengerbund will be given November 14, and the Thanksgiving "Talakraechen" will be held Thanksgiving evening.

A "Te Deum" for chorus and orchestra, composed by Heinrich Hammer, conductor of the Choral Society, will be the feature of the program which that organization will give at its first concert in December. Chadwick's "Noci" will be sung and the orchestra will play Liszt's "Prelude." The campaign which the society is making for an increase of membership is meeting the approval of Washington music lovers, who feel that the Capital City should be represented by one of the finest choral societies in the country.

Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" will be rendered this evening by the choir of St. Michael's and All Angels' Church, assisted by the following soloists: Soprano, Mrs. E. G. Atkins, Miss Florence Girouard, Miss Daisy Harrison, and Miss Beesie Harrison; tenors, John Howard Taylor and Henry W. Jaeger; violinist, Charles L. Frutley; organist, Miss Margaret White, and pianist and director, Mrs. Henry Hunt McKee.

The program will be: Prelude, first and second movements of symphony from Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise"; processional hymn, No. 514, "Onward, Christian Soldiers"; "Magnificat." Field; "Nunc Dimittis." Spont; "Gloria Patri." Brubaker; offertory, "O Divine Redeemer," Gounod; Miss Girouard; selections from Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise." Opening chorus, "All Hail, All Hail, All Hail That Holy Life and Bless'd, Lead to the Lord," solo and chorus. "Praise Thou the Lord, O My Spirit," Miss Daisy Harrison, soloist; recitative, "Sing Ye Praise," etc. "He Counted All Year Sorrows," John Howard Taylor; duet, "I Waited for the Lord," Misses Daisy and Beesie Harrison; recitative, "Watchman, Will the Night Pass?" etc. "The Servants of Death," Henry W. Jaeger; duet, "My Song Shall Always Be The Lord's," Mrs. E. G. Atkins and Mr. Jaeger; chorus, "Let All Men Praise the Lord," recessional, Letter No. 527, "There Is a Blessed Home," Solo, from symphony of "Hymn of Praise," Miss White, Mr. Frutley, and Miss McKee.

An interesting program of "The Fortification Series" and "Songs of Today" will

We Inaugurate Tomorrow a Remarkable "Veteran" Watch Contest

Every watch made in this country bears a factory number, and the factory knows exactly when each watch left its possession.

We are going to offer as

PRIZES = A MEN'S SOLID GOLD WATCH AND A LADIES' SOLID GOLD WATCH

To the respective possessors of the oldest Men's and Ladies' Waltham, Elgin, Howard, or R. Harris & Co.'s Watches in present use that is brought to our store before Dec. 1, 1909.

The sole and only conditions attached to this contest are that the Watches must now be in actual service, and must be left at our store for one day to enable us to collect the necessary data.

If you have an old watch in your possession, bought years ago, or bequeathed to you by a parent or other relative, bring it to us. It may win the prize. The contest has nothing to do with the value of the watch—the prizes will be given simply for age and long service.

This unusual contest will be a bright feature of our
